Professional Summary

Software Engineering student at FAST NUCES (CGPA: 3.4, Dean's List) seeking a Technology & Product internship where I can apply hands-on full-stack experience. Delivered a production-grade lab management system for FAST University using Flask and MySQL, and contributed to shipped React products as a frontend developer for ACM's annual flagship event. Eager to build scalable solutions and grow under industry mentorship.

Projects

- University Lab Management System (ULMS) | Flask, MySQL, HTML, CSS, JavaScript March '26 – Present
- GitHub: github.com/Danish-Ahmed24/sda_ulms
 - Built for FAST University, delivering a role-based portal for admins, lab incharges, and teachers to manage labs, assets, and issues in one unified workflow.
 - Designed a normalized MySQL schema with 11 tables and audit-log triggers for full insert/update/delete traceability across critical entities.
 - Implemented CRUD operations for labs, PCs, devices, peripherals, OS installs, and software distribution to support ~60 concurrent users in peak lab hours.
 - Delivered issue/complaint tracking with status dashboards and lab/PC filtering to manage ~10 labs, ~300 PCs, and ~120 shared devices per campus.
- CS50W Final Project | Django, JavaScript, HTML, CSS Harvard CS50 Web 2026 – Present
- Building the capstone project for Harvard's CS50 Web Programming with Python and JavaScript; project submissions are accepted and reviewed by Harvard course staff.
